

JHW J.H. Wright & Associates, Inc.

Founder of JH Wright & Associates, John Hamilton (Ham) Wright, age 88 of Daphne, Alabama passed away Monday, September 26, 2016.

Affectionately known as Ham to family and friends, a brief resume of his career is listed here. The profound impact of his generosity and personality upon those who knew him can't be reduced to or reflected in a brief list of accomplishments.

- Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Florida in Mechanical Engineering.
- Member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and Sigma Tau honor society.
- Salesman for Sun Oil Company.
- Regional Manager for Gould's Pumps.
- Registered professional engineer in Alabama and Georgia.
- Founded J.H. Wright and Associates in 1960.
- President of the Ingersoll Rand Pump Distributors Association.
- Recipient of the Wright Brothers Master Pilot Award, which recognizes 50 years of safe aviation, awarded by the Federal Aviation Authority.
- Lifetime member of the Beechcraft Heritage Museum.

For all his accomplishments and contributions to society, Ham always referred to himself as a Pump Peddler and that he was, excelling in peddling pumps and excelling in so many other ways!
